

Part-Time Video Interviewer/Podcast Host

We are enthusiastically looking for a Video Interviewer/Podcast Host with a passion for shamanism. We are a start-up digital magazine and interactive social community with a focus on contemporary archetypal shamanism. While much of our content is subscriber and writer submitted, as a brand we also offer exclusive content, published under The Urban Shaman. This position requires you to represent The Urban Shaman while conducting recorded video interviews, podcasts, etc. which are made available to subscribers.

We are specifically looking for someone who is well-organized, a self-starter, has good communication skills, is committed, professional, and who is adept at assessing the interests of the subscriber base and translating those into relevant interview questions that steer the interview to be consistent with the vision, goals, and values of The Urban Shaman. This role requires being in regular communication with the editor, meeting publishing deadlines, initiating conversation with potential interviewees, scheduling interviews, researching interviewees prior to developing appropriate interview questions, and producing appropriate recorded video/audio material and/or written material for the editing process.

This role will give you the opportunity to sharpen your journalism skills across various types of media, will provide you access to a variety of outstanding individuals within the larger shamanic community, and will allow you to contribute your own creative ideas and specific interests through influencing the interviews you are assigned. Our brand is unique, and with the right alchemical combination, has exciting potential. The time is ripe for opening up a global dialog, defining and re-defining shamanic practice that is ethical, grounded, and relevant to contemporary societies.

Position Requirements:

- A personal computer with adequate webcam and/or video capability, including audio recording capabilities
- Consistent access to the internet
- Personal/emotional stability (professionalism)
- Must have a high ethical caliber
- Open-minded and/or able to set aside lifestyle, political, social, religious, or cultural dogma
- Reliable and able to work towards goals
- Ability to take charge and steer an interview, while also being flexible and conversational
- A 'people person'
- A positive and enthusiastic representation of the brand
- Able to respond to conflict with professionalism and integrity
- Comfortable and confident in interacting with professionals, shamanic individuals, estoteric/mystical individuals, artists etc. in a recorded interviewing format
- Assertive (self-starter), but polite

Preferences:

- Passionate about archetypal shamanism
- Excited about the opportunity to be a part of growing something
- A team player
- A shamanistic person yourself
- Knowledge and/or experience with entheogens, shamanic practice, neoshamanism, the larger shamanic community, alchemy, archetypal shamanism

Job Type: Part-time
Variable hours
At Home

Salary: Non-paid internship, with potential to evolve into a paid position

If interested, please send a resume and a short biography outlining your knowledge and interest in shamanism to editor@theurbanshaman.online